

Scripture: 2 Sam. 24:10-17, Lk 15:11-32

Over and over again, God invites us to a posture of constant brokenness and vulnerability

Scripture: 2 Sam. 24:10-17, Lk 15:11-32

Over and over again, God invites us to a posture of constant brokenness and vulnerability

Going Deep

How is a Theology of Weakness and its practice helpful to us in our journey of Emotionally Healthy Discipleship?

1. Western Culture, including the church, places a high value on power and influence.
2. God built brokenness and weakness in the fabric of all life when he allowed the consequences of the fall.
3. God invites us to a posture of constant brokenness and vulnerability - one in which we lean into him in order to be lavishly overwhelmed by His love.

Notes:

Going Deep

How is a Theology of Weakness and its practice helpful to us in our journey of Emotionally Healthy Discipleship?

1. Western Culture, including the church, places a high value on power and influence.
2. God built brokenness and weakness in the fabric of all life when he allowed the consequences of the fall.
3. God invites us to a posture of constant brokenness and vulnerability - one in which we lean into him in order to be lavishly overwhelmed by His love.

Notes:
